

2018-2019 TTC Catalog

CRJ 233 Cyber Crimes and the Law

Lec: 3.0 Lab: 0 Credit: 3.0

This course examines the problem of crime involving computers and the strategies used for identification, investigation and prosecution. Topics include computer crime offenses, computer fundamentals, security technologies, investigative methods, the internet, state and federal computer crime statutes, management of electronic evidence, and crime prevention techniques.

Course Offered

Spring

Grade Type

Letter Grade

Division

Public, Professional and Legal Studies